Section A (Compulsory)

Item 1

Peter, a young Christian lawyer, faces a challenging case involving a wealthy client accused of corruption. Peter knows the client is guilty but is offered a substantial bribe to manipulate evidence and ensure the client is acquitted. Torn between his Christian ethics and the promise of wealth, Peter struggles with the decision.

Tasks:

- (a). How can Peter apply Christian teachings to maintain his integrity in this situation?
- (b). What does the Bible say about the love of money and ethical conduct?

Item 2

Lucy, a Christian youth leader, has always been vocal about abstinence and maintaining purity. However, she recently found herself in a compromising situation and is now pregnant. Fearful of judgment, Lucy contemplates leaving the church to avoid the shame and disappointment of her peers and congregation.

Tasks:

- (a). How should Lucy deal with her feelings of guilt and shame in light of Christian forgiveness?
- (b). Discuss how the church should respond to young people who struggle with maintaining their values.

Section B (Choose one item from each part)

Part I

Item 3

Andrew, a high-ranking church official, has been secretly struggling with alcoholism. Though he appears outwardly successful and faithful, his addiction is taking a toll on his health and family. Recently, he was involved in a car accident while under the influence, putting his reputation and ministry at risk.

Tasks:

- (a). How should Andrew confront his addiction according to Christian teachings?
- (b). What role can the church play in helping members who are battling hidden addictions?

Item 4

Betty, a university student, was expelled from school after being caught cheating on her final exams. Despite her remorse and efforts to apologize, the administration decided on expulsion. Betty's parents, who are devoted Christians, are disappointed and unsure how to help her move forward.

Tasks:

- (a). How should Betty's parents use their faith to support her during this difficult time?
- (b). Discuss the Christian perspective on second chances and forgiveness.

Prat II

Item 5

Moses, a Christian police officer, is offered a bribe by a group of criminals to turn a blind eye to their activities. Though Moses initially refuses, the threats and pressure to protect his family push him to reconsider. He is torn between his duty to uphold the law and his desire to keep his family safe.

Tasks:

- (a). How should Moses navigate this moral conflict using his Christian beliefs?
- (b). What guidance does the Bible provide on handling threats and making difficult choices?

Item 6

Hannah, a Christian businesswoman, recently lost her company due to a market collapse. Struggling with financial instability, she is tempted to engage in unethical business deals to quickly rebuild her wealth. Her faith in God is wavering, and she feels abandoned and desperate.

Tasks:

- (a). How can Hannah use her faith to overcome her financial challenges ethically?
- (b). Discuss how Christian teachings can provide hope and resilience in times of financial crisis.

END

MARKING GUIDE TO THE ABOVE TASKS

Section A

Item 1: Peter's Ethical Dilemma

(a). Maintaining Integrity Amid Corruption

Peter must uphold Christian ethics, rejecting any form of bribery or deceit (Proverbs 10:9). He should rely on God's wisdom and refuse to be swayed by the allure of wealth, as integrity is more valuable than riches.

(b). Love of Money and Ethical Conduct

The Bible teaches that the love of money is the root of all evil (1 Timothy 6:10). Peter should remember that no financial gain is worth compromising his integrity and relationship with God.

Item 2: Lucy's Guilt and Shame

(a). Dealing with Guilt through Forgiveness

Lucy should turn to God, who offers forgiveness and grace to all who repent (1 John 1:9). She should seek support from her church and focus on rebuilding her life with God's guidance.

(b). Church's Response to Struggling Youth

The church should provide a compassionate, non-judgmental environment, offering counseling and mentorship to help young people navigate their struggles without fear of rejection.

Section B

Part I

Item 3: Andrew's Addiction

(a). Confronting Addiction with Christian Teachings

Andrew should seek help through prayer, counseling, and accountability. The Bible emphasizes the need to confess sins and seek restoration through God's power (James 5:16).

(b). Church's Role in Supporting Addicts

The church should provide a supportive community, encouraging individuals battling addictions with love, accountability, and resources for recovery.

Item 4: Betty's Academic Failure

(a). Parental Support During Difficult Times

Betty's parents should offer her unconditional love and support, reminding her that failure is not final. They can encourage her to learn from her mistakes and pursue new opportunities with God's guidance.

(b). Christian Perspective on Second Chances

The Bible emphasizes second chances and forgiveness (Luke 15:11-32). Betty should be encouraged to move forward, knowing that God offers grace for a fresh start.

Part II

Item 5: Moses' Bribery Conflict

(a). Navigating Moral Conflicts with Christian Beliefs

Moses must uphold his duty to the law and his faith, refusing any bribe regardless of threats. He should trust in God's protection and make choices that honor his conscience.

(b). Biblical Guidance on Handling Threats

The Bible teaches not to fear those who threaten harm but to trust in God's power and protection (Psalm 56:3-4). Moses should seek legal protection if necessary and remain steadfast in his values.

Item 6: Hannah's Financial Challenges

(a). Overcoming Financial Challenges with Faith

Hannah should remain honest in her business dealings, trusting God's provision. The Bible emphasizes working diligently and trusting God's plan rather than resorting to unethical shortcuts.

(b). Hope and Resilience in Financial Crisis

Christian teachings encourage resilience, trusting that God is faithful in every situation (Philippians 4:13). Hannah should keep her focus on God's promises and seek ways to rebuild with integrity.
